TO OUR CUSTOMERS . . .

It is a pleasure to mail to you this descriptive price list. And we hope that it will serve to our mutual advantage. Our stock of Camellias is larger than ever. And you can be sure of receiving plants that will please you.

We try to advise our customers to the varieties of Camellias and Azaleas best suited for their particular locality.

We extend to you a cordial invitation to visit our nursery at any time. A visit during the Azalea or Camellia blooming season will be especially interesting to you. Camellias begin to bloom about November and Azaleas about February 15.

Sincerely,

Ernest A. Judice
